

Deciphering the Chinese Zodiac Workshop

Did you know that you actually have a combination of four not just one of the Chinese zodiac animals describing your behaviour patterns?

The twelve year cycle of the Chinese zodiac was originally based on the time it takes the planet Jupiter to revolve around the Sun. Within this concept, one of the twelve animals can be allocated to each of the month, day and two-hour period you were born in, as well as the year.

Come and find out about your destiny based on the "Four Pillars of Fate"!

Sara holds certificates from Visionary Spiritual College in Chinese Astrology. She has obtained a far deeper understanding over years of experience integrating Chinese Animal characteristics into client's Numerology and Astrology readings.

Professionally qualified in Western Astrology, Numerology and Tarot, Sara consults regularly at Mind Body Spirit and other festivals and expos. As Mystical Dragon's Astrologer, Palmist & Numerologist, she integrates these insights with her love & knowledge of Tarot, Kabbalah, Mythology, Crystals, Energy Healing & Chinese Astrology.

Sara says: "I've found Chinese Astrology Animal characteristics particularly useful in understanding my own behaviour patterns and those of the people I interact with, on both an intimate and a day-to-day basis. Whatever kind of consultation I am undertaking for a client, I find knowledge of their Chinese Animal year helpful in assessing how to deliver the other feedback and messages I have for them. It works particularly well with Numerology!"

TESTIMONIALS:

"I wanted to say thank you to Sara. She did my Numerology reading, natal and progressive chart & a past life reading. Sara answered all my questions & really helped me in understanding who I am (and was!) a little better. Her reading was very thorough, spot on & helpful. She left me with some reading & a lot of thinking to do. Her warmth & understanding are an added bonus." E.X
