

Your Personal Tree of Life Workshop

What better way to start your journey on the kabbalah Tree of Life than to learn how to draw your own so that it fits the original design?

There is something symbolic in creating your own drawing and decorating it with the colours and paths that demonstrate your journey through this incarnation.

Meditating on what you should use as the subject of your tree and starting to put it into action.....

She has deepened her knowledge much further by undertaking 3 years of study into Advanced Kabbalah with Evelynne Joffe. Sara has had several articles published in 'The Magician' & 'Spheres' on Tarot/Kabbalah related subjects. She has been running a conceptual course in Tarot for several years.

In addition to teaching reading at Mystical Dragon, Sara conducts Palmistry readings regularly at Mind Body Spirit and other festivals and expos. She is Mystical Dragon's Astrologer, Palmist & Numerologist and integrates these insights with her love & knowledge of Tarot, Kabbalah, Mythology, Energy Healing & Chinese Astrology.

Sara says: "I was working with a Mandala group at the same time as I learned the Kabbalah and had to construct my first tree, so I decided to represent each sephira with a mandala. We hadn't got to calculating our paths yet and I mistakenly thought I was on path 28. When I constructed my tree and presented it to the class, no one including myself noticed that I had left out Path 17 and path 15 at the top of the tree over the abyss. When we did find out about our paths a few weeks later, I found that I was on path 17!!!"
