Sara Gilbert is a Professional member of the Tarot Guild of Australia who practices through her business Life Spirit Connections in Carrum Downs near Frankston. She is also a member of the Association of Professional Astrologers and holds the Practitioners Diploma in Astrology from the Federation of Australian Astrologers. She has a special interest in Evolutionary Astrology and holds Level 1 Apprentice status with Steven Forrest in this field, which focuses on the Moon's Nodes and Past Lives.

Sara regularly reads at festivals and corporate events, she also teaches and conducts a variety of services involving Astrology, Palmistry, Numerology, Chinese Astrology & the Kabbalah Tree of Life, as well as Tarot. She is passionate about the use of myth, images, music and colour in her materials, liking to appeal to as many of the senses as possible to get the meanings absorbed. She also offers tuition by correspondence and provides one on one mentoring to readers who have the knowledge but need to lift their confidence to conduct readings.

Tarot works with an undeniable degree of accuracy. The querant shuffling the cards transfer's their energy to ensure the right cards are selected to direct them to the right path. The reader always receives the right messages despite there being many meanings for every card. It isn't fortune telling or fate and destiny, it's a translation of the energy around the querant, a guide to the most empowering way they can use their free will to serve their life experience, at that point of time.

This workshop will provide you with additional knowledge to incorporate, as well as facilitate understanding of your own life journey.

Workshop outline

"I wish I knew how to decipher all the symbols on my cards" is a common lament amongst tarot devotees!

This workshop introduces the structure of the Tree of Life, whereby every Major Arcana card fits onto a numbered path, associated with a Hebrew letter.

The date of birth gives valuable information about the lessons to be learnt in this lifetime. The path it corresponds to on the Tree, conveys a special message for us, amplified by its symbolic letter.

Likewise one's name at birth reinforces the skills brought forward from previous lives, which will assist in your current development process.

This is not to be confused with the Life Path number from Numerology, or the astrological Sun Sign, as translated into a Major Arcana archetype.

Life Path cards help make sense of the reasons we are really drawn to some cards in the deck and dislike or are repelled by others. This can sometimes mean the cards carry messages we are not particularly keen on hearing; in a similar manner to the parts of ourselves we are not ready to accept.

Come and have a fun afternoon finding your personal Major Arcana cards within the Tarot and understanding how they resonate with your life journey!

Pick up some new ideas and take away some different tarot spreads, which will enable you to use your cards to obtain a different kind of information about your life; somewhat in the spirit of Rachel Pollack's "Wisdom Readings" talked about in her book "Tarot Wisdom"!

Information regarding the Kaballah Tree of Life paths used in this workshop can only be of a basic nature within the timeframe allocated.

Anyone interested in gaining deeper understanding is strongly recommended to undertake Evelynne Joffe's outstanding annual course.

The Kabbalah Tree of Life

The Tree of Life is the primary symbol of the Kabbalah (Qabalah) mystical system and as such is a model for transition and self-development, not a religion.

There are 10 centres of energy, called Sephirot on the tree which link to the numbered suits of cards in the Tarot. These Sephirot are joined by 22 energy paths corresponding to the 22 Major Arcana Tarot cards and the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

The Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn formed in the late 1880's, was responsible for collating, focusing and expanding on existing Western esoteric traditions to formalise this system including linkages between the Tree of Life, the Tarot, the Hebrew letters, the human body and astrology. Many Tarot Decks contain symbols representing the astrology and/or letters associated with the cards. However some artists or designers of decks have taken it on themselves to "redesign" the paths, so care should be taken in following the symbols until they have been proven.

At the end of the workshop students will have an understanding of linkages between the paths on the tree and the 22 Major Arcana Cards.

Each student will be introduced to the cards and paths which are associated with their name and date of birth.

Notes will be provided covering the concepts introduced and the Tarot spreads which are used in the workshop

Students should bring a Rider Waite Tarot Deck with them to the workshop.
