Sara can work with you through private consultation or a series of courses and workshops. She regularly reads at festivals, parties, ladies nights & corporate events, working in most states throughout Australia.

Workshop outline

"I wish I knew how to decipher all the symbols on my cards" is a common lament amongst tarot devotees!

This workshop introduces the structure of the Tree of Life, whereby every Major Arcana card fits onto a numbered path, associated with a Hebrew letter.

The date of birth gives valuable information about the lessons to be learnt in this lifetime. The path it corresponds to on the Tree, conveys a special message for us, amplified by its symbolic letter.

Likewise one's name at birth reinforces the skills brought forward from previous lives, which will assist in your current development process.

This is not to be confused with the Life Path number from Numerology, or the astrological Sun Sign, as translated into a Major Arcana archetype.

Life Path cards help make sense of the reasons we are really drawn to some cards in the deck and dislike or are repelled by others. This can sometimes mean the cards carry messages we are not particularly keen on hearing; in a similar manner to the parts of ourselves we are not ready to accept.

Come and have a fun afternoon finding your personal Major Arcana cards within the Tarot and understanding how they resonate with your life journey!

Pick up some new ideas and take away some different tarot spreads, which will enable you to use your cards to obtain a different kind of information about your life; somewhat in the spirit of Rachel Pollack's "Wisdom Readings" talked about in her book "Tarot Wisdom"!

Information regarding the Kabbalah Tree of Life paths used in this workshop can only be of a basic nature within the timeframe allocated.

The Kabbalah Tree of Life

The Tree of Life is the primary symbol of the Kabbalah (Qabalah) mystical system and as such is a model for transition and self-development, not a religion.

There are 10 centres of energy, called Sephirot on the tree which link to the numbered suits of cards in the Tarot. These Sephirot are joined by 22 energy paths corresponding to the 22 Major Arcana Tarot cards and the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

The Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn formed in the late 1880's, was responsible for collating, focusing and expanding on existing Western esoteric traditions to formalise this system including linkages between the Tree of Life, the Tarot, the Hebrew letters, the human body and astrology. Many Tarot Decks contain symbols representing the astrology and/or letters associated with the cards. However some artists or designers of decks have taken it on themselves to "redesign" the paths, so care should be taken in following the symbols until they have been proven.

At the end of the workshop students will have an understanding of linkages between the paths on the tree and the 22 Major Arcana Cards.

Each student will be introduced to the cards and paths which are associated with their name and date of birth.

Notes will be provided covering the concepts introduced and the Tarot spreads which are used in the workshop
