Asteroids & Myth

Astrology works on the concept that what happens in the sky above, provides energy to be used in our lives down on Earth. "As Above – So Below"

We have free will to use that energy as we see fit. If we are unconscious of it's existence we will tend to experience it as fate or destiny, or external events happening to us. However when we are conscious of it, we can use it to optimise our experiences and integrate our lessons, enhancing our journey to initiation.

The planets and luminaries usually taken into consideration by astrologers consist of mainly male archetypes with only the Moon (the mother) and Venus (the whore) representing the feminine side of humanity!

Sara decided to reverse this balance by spending many years intensively researching the use of a group of more intuitive and mostly female archetypes in the astrology charts of individuals who resonate and live their lives around what comes naturally through the spirit and intuitive side of the mind. This has involved studying the charts of present and historical individuals involved in oracular practice, magic, healing and astrology as well as those drawn to living in tune with nature.

The asteroid belt is situated between Mars and Jupiter forming a bridge between the personal planets and our belief systems. Myths have inherent meaning to us all as the archetypes or stories they present have long been believed to be bedded deep in the collective unconscious.

Many asteroids have been named after characters from myth, including Mesopotamian, Egyptian, Greek/Roman deities or individuals associated with healing, oracular practice and magic.

Ironically they were named by astronomers who belong to the control group side of Sara's research, consisting of those who reject the validity of working with spirit or anything that cannot be proven through science or rational thought.

Sara has been using her 50 odd additional asteroids in the charts of clients interested in revealing linkages between their intuitive abilities and connections to mythical archetypes. She has identified significant patterns and positions for the asteroids within the potential that already exists within traditional astrological configurations. Her clients have found this quite inspirational! She also works with the transits and progressions to the asteroids, so current and future developments can be explored.

Her beautifully creative laminated Goddess Sheets consist of a brief synopsis Sara develops for the asteroid she considers most important for the clients Natal chart, as well as a ritual developed to facilitate connection with the archetype in question. A birth time enables more points to be taken into consideration, but a sheet is still able to be produced without one.

Consultations

Sara integrates her knowledge of Astrology with her insights into Palmistry, Tarot, Numerology and Myth from many regions.

She is a compassionate soul whose life purpose is to inspire and empower her clients to develop their lives and reach their true potential. She has a wealth of life experience to back up her spiritual abilities; having been a mother, wife, lover and grand-mother, as well as a Line Manager in many large international organizations, a successful management consultant, a small business owner, a teacher and a Board Director for several not-for-profit associations.

It is no surprise that her own natal chart combines the potential for teaching and business ability with the signature of a transformational spiritual healer!

Astrological consultations produce the best value as a two-way process, with frank discussion of how the energy presents for the client, and options for how it could best be optimized.

Consultations may be conducted in person, by Skype, or phone. Readings will be recorded by MP3 file burned into a CD. and mailed to the client if this option is required. If desired the consultation can be in the form of a recording alone.

All information shared by the client in consultations is of course completely confidential.
