

NEWSLETTER: JANUARY 2017

2016 was definitely a time of letting go and tidying up loose ends, I found the energy virtually palpable during December and I found it hard to settle and get on with my writing, even in this first week of January. All my being wanted to focus on clearing out, tidying up and making sparkly clean all areas of my home, my garden and my life. I feel really content and ready for whatever the Universe decides to gift me with in 2017. It began in August with my Jupiter Return and while I knew it related to my writing, my reach out into the world and partnerships, it had yet to completely unfold. Interestingly I launched my revitalized website and agreed to start working with Bernadette Carter-King from Building Beautiful Souls in the US around that time. The Jupiter Return is a new 12 year cycle around personal transformation, expansion and growth. 2017 is a "One" Universal year in Numerology for the whole Cosmos, signifying the beginning of a new nine year cycle for us all. The last cycle began in 2008 and for me it signified the beginning of total focus onto Life Spirit Connections, my spiritual business, letting go of my previous high salary management consultancy in August of that year. I feel truly blessed at the progress I have made and proud of the different person I have become in the process. Hence my concentration on finishing off as much as I could at the end of 2016 and beginning 2017 with as clean a slate as possible. Each year I make a Tarot Spread to suggest the energies of the year ahead month by month. It begins with the Ace of Wands at the top left for January and proceeds anti-clockwise until the 3 of Pentacles top right for December. I didn't like it to begin with, but today it seems quite relevant with four beginning cards, the two Aces, the Page of Wands and Key 1 the Magician. The overall card for the year is Key 21 the World about things coming to a natural completion, ready for a new beginning.

There are three cards each for Wands (action), Cups (love & relationship) and Swords (thinking & communication) but only one Pentacle (work & finances), at the end of the year. So the changes are more likely to the personal side of my life. As it transpires the Chinese New Year begins quite early this year, on January 28 with the Aquarius New Moon. It falls on the first New Moon after January 21 each year. 2017 is the Year of the Fire Rooster, a 60 year cycle heading back to 1957, for the combination of both element and animal. This particular New Moon seems doubly significant as it also falls with the Sun and Moon merging energy almost exactly with the conjunction of the asteroids named for Isis and Osiris, the King and Queen of the Egyptian Neters or Deities. For this reason I have chosen to feature them in my monthly video for the CIA Collective Membership in February. I have found that the more you work with the energy of the Cosmos the more easily and successfully lie flows for you!

RESEARCH ON MYSTICAL ASTEROIDS

Many asteroids have been named after characters from myth, including Greek and Egyptian Gods, Goddesses and individuals associated with healing, oracular practice and magic. The research I am working on studies the mythical archetypes associated with a selection of these bodies and researches their impact when included in the natal charts of around 200 present and historical individuals involved in oracular practice, magic, healing and astrology. I have validated my findings through studying a control group of scientists, rationalists and astronomers who reject the validity of working with spirit or any method which lacks physical, cause and effect validation. I am now at the stage of completing my analysis and have to decide how to communicate my findings, which I hope to finalize soon. I am also working with aligning the same Goddess archetypes to "gift markings" in the hand, which also can be related to intuitive abilities. I am happy to report that I am getting my focus back together on my asteroids and mythology through the preparation I went through for my Sydney talk, the planning for my myth workshop in March and the research for my monthly videos on the intuitive minor planets for the CIA Collective Membership.

ARCHETYPE OF THE MONTH: ISIS

Isis was sister and wife to Osiris who ruled as the first King or Pharaoh of Egypt. Their love was legendary and transcended the death of Osiris, murdered by the trickery of his jealous and evil brother Set. Set cut the body into fourteen pieces and scattered them throughout the kingdom of Egypt but he fed the phallus to flesh-eating fish in the Nile. Isis searched the country far and wide and retrieved the body parts. She used magic to regenerate Osiris with a replacement phallus made of stone or some say gold. Then she impregnated herself, having taken the form of a swallow, and thus Horus was conceived in order to seize back the kingdom and avenge his father.

This was not the first time Isis had used magic, in her early years she tricked Ra into telling her his secret name which gave her the power to assume the identity of any other deity. She created a snake from Ra's spittle in the dust, which bit him. While he could not be harmed by another, he was not safe from a weapon fashioned from himself and so he was not able to recover without the help of Isis.

So Isis became the power behind the throne and the original Strong Woman, Single Mother, bringing up Horus to take on Set when he was old enough. There is a similar energy or metaphor in place as with Mary and Jesus, as portrayed in many statues and pictures.

"Isis represents feminine power, magic, healing and the ability to create, manifest, re-incorporate and transform by defeating our shadow side and understanding that real love never dies."
